FACULTY

Our Principal Mr. Moyers

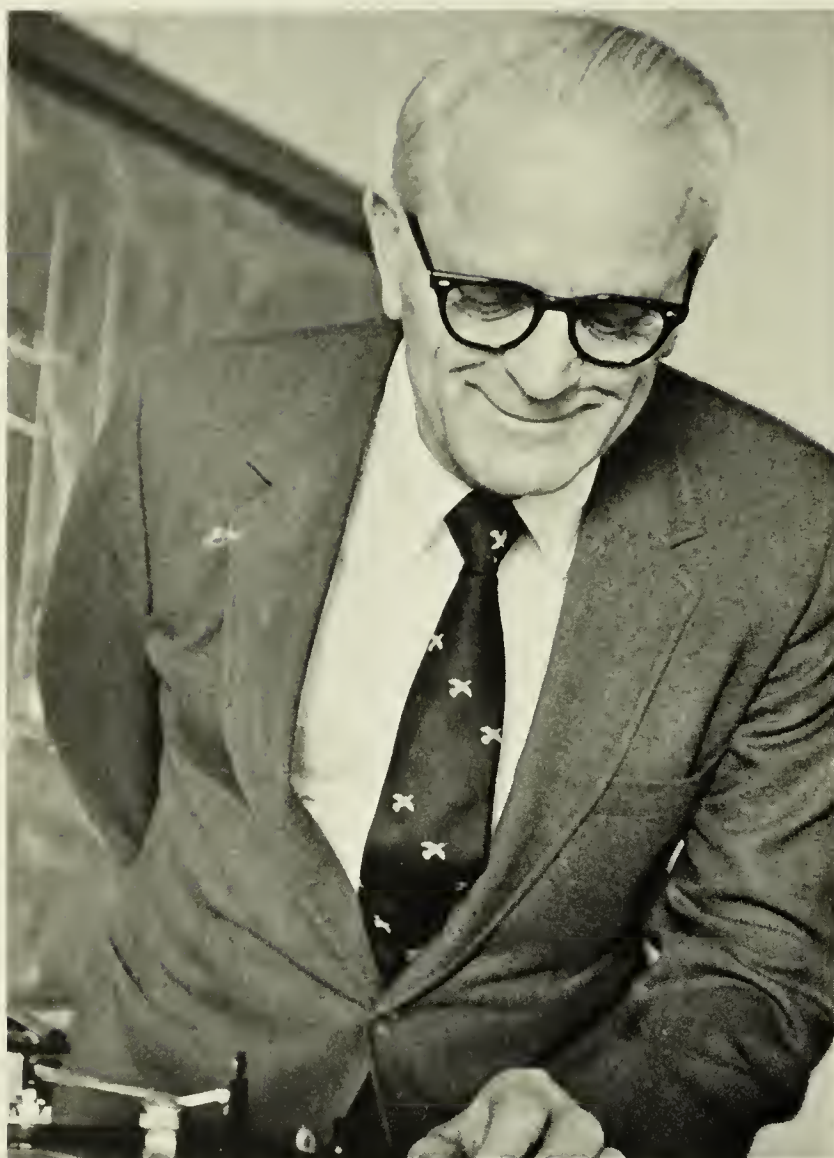

Principal Jim Moyers' days are long and hard as he handles the administrative duties of the school. He takes an active interest in student activities and tries to counsel students with problems. His informal, personal relationship creates a good working situation with students.

Mr. Dale Dodrill, Assistant Principal; Mrs. Hazel Fulk, Secretary; Mrs. Della Ours, Teachers' Aid.

Behind
the scene,
the administration

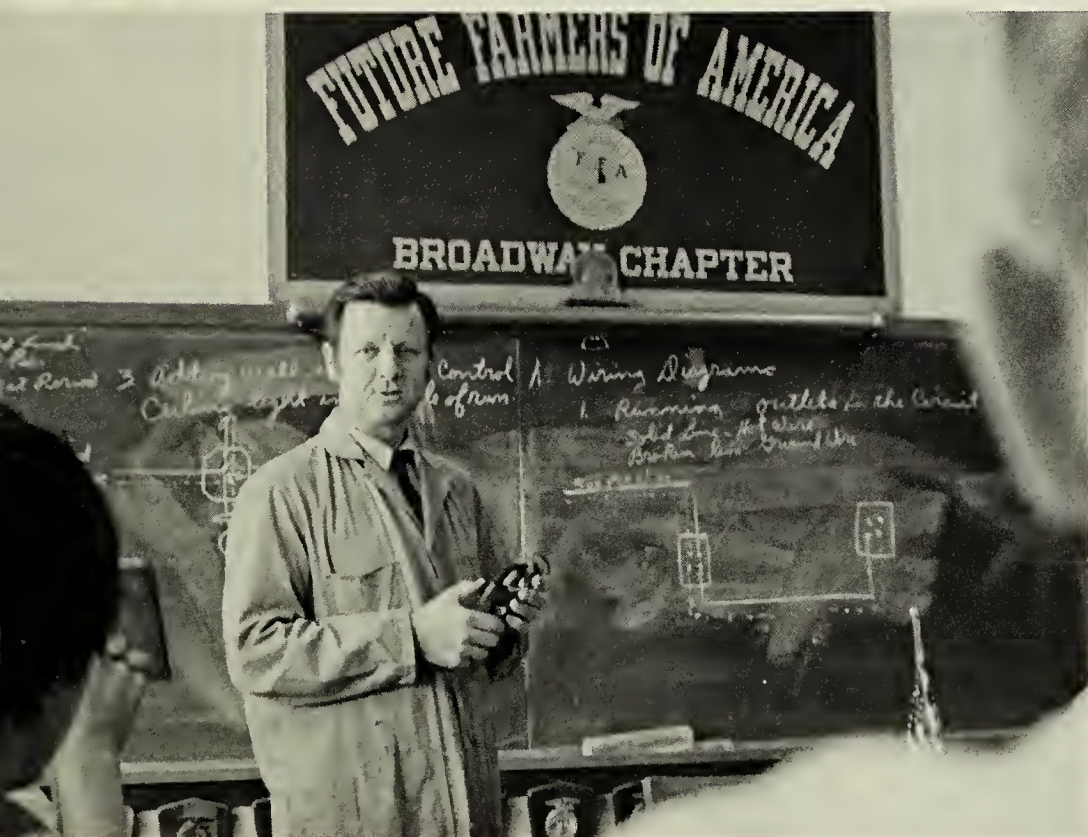

From football field to chalk board . . .

With energy, enthusiasm, and patience . . .

They are challenged daily . . .

They are our teachers and our friends.

The teachers, overworked and often unappreciated, still assume the infinite task of molding minds. Rushing through classes, burdened with paper work, they manage to find time to counsel students individually, take an interest in school activities, and most of all, to care about us.

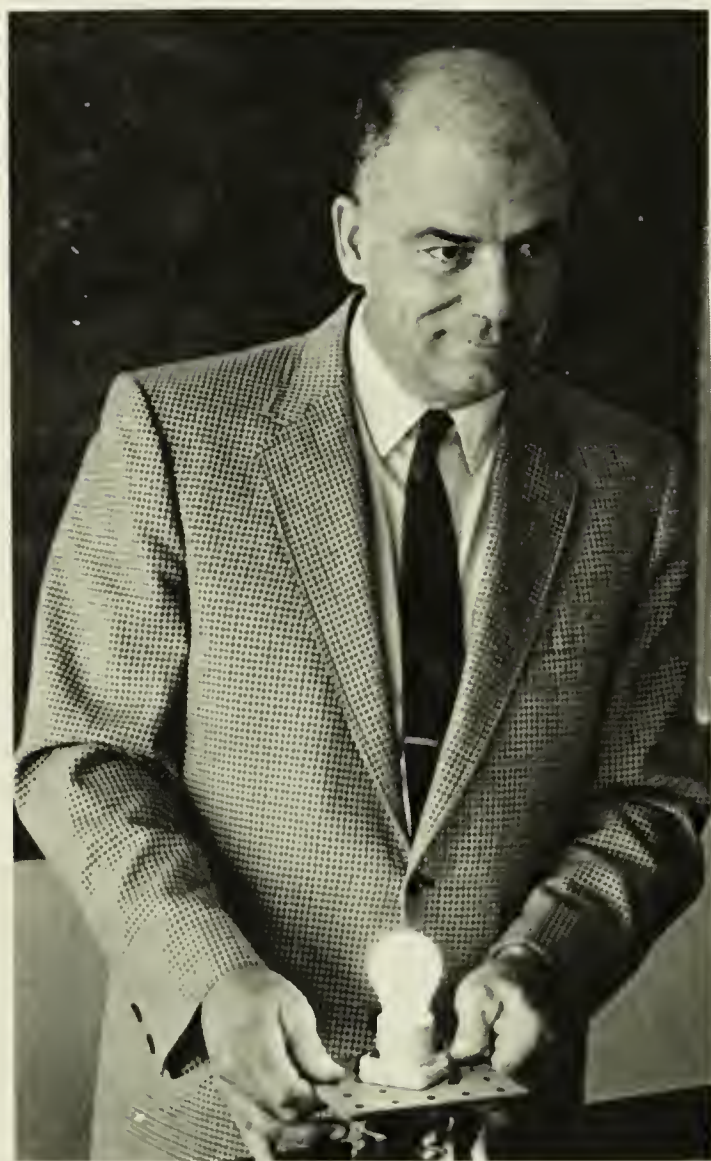

Through their work, a student learns to reason and think for himself, to know and desire more knowledge. He learns to formulate new ideas and sometimes reject the old, accepted views for the new. Often a teacher's efforts seem to be unfulfilled, but then he sees an eye light up, a smile, and he realizes a mind has been reached. At that moment, the teacher has achieved his goal.

"Yeah, Larry, to study you have to be comfortable. But this?!"

"We know your tests are thorough, Mrs. Funkhouser, but it's six o'clock!"

"Let's see, I took the Vikings and gave seven points, took the Dolphins and four points, took Dallas and gave six, took Baltimore and gave seventeen. That means I owe Hollar eight dollars?!"

Mr. Dodrill, Mr. Dodrill! There's something strange sprouting out of this bush over here! Jon Winoker, Treasurer; Melanie May, Vice-President; Stewart Mason, President; and Jane Kyger, Secretary.

SPORTS

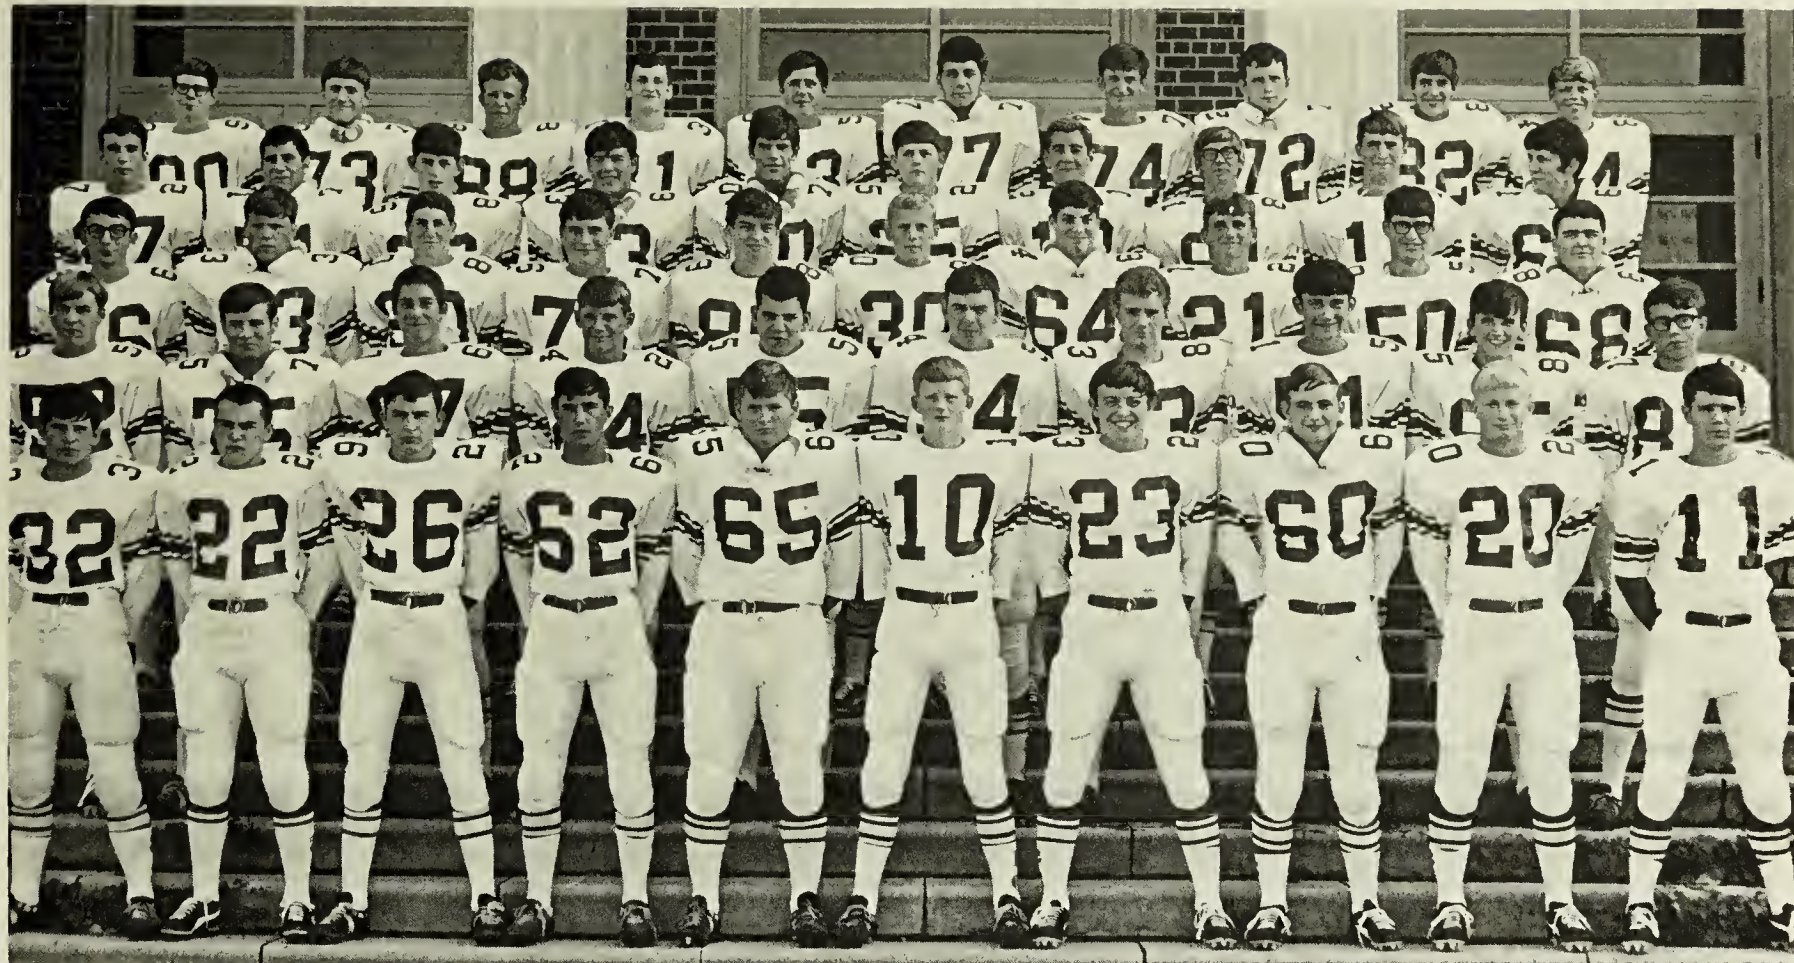

The elusive football hangs suspended in the air. Outstretched fingers reach for it as the thunder of pursuers becomes steadily louder. Nestled in an armpit, it is carried on a dodging, twisting path toward the goal. Suddenly a solid wall of the enemy appears. The air vibrates with the sound of clashing pads striking the earth. There, on the ground under it all, lies the football. These are familiar sights and sounds for the members of Broadway's football team. They play with the football wet from rain, slippery from mud and icy from cold. The team fights hard and it fights well, this year ending the season with a respectable 6-4 record. Long, hard hours of practice under the guidance and watchful eyes of Head Coach Tom Allebaugh and assistant coaches Jerry Fawley, Mike Hensley, and Joseph Jones result in the work and effort evident during those games. Behind the scenes of a football game, managers Vince Whitmore, David Presgraves, Junior Thompson and Karol Messick handle the thousand tiny details that are a part of each game. After a week of practice and drill comes Friday night. The emotions of a football game vibrate through the cheering crowd as the team thunders onto the field. They line up for the kickoff and all the pre-game excitement, anticipation, anger and frustration disappear as the line of players moves toward the ball. The dull thud of the kickoff signals an echoing cheer from the crowd as once again, the elusive football flies through the air.

Broadway Gobblers — 1970

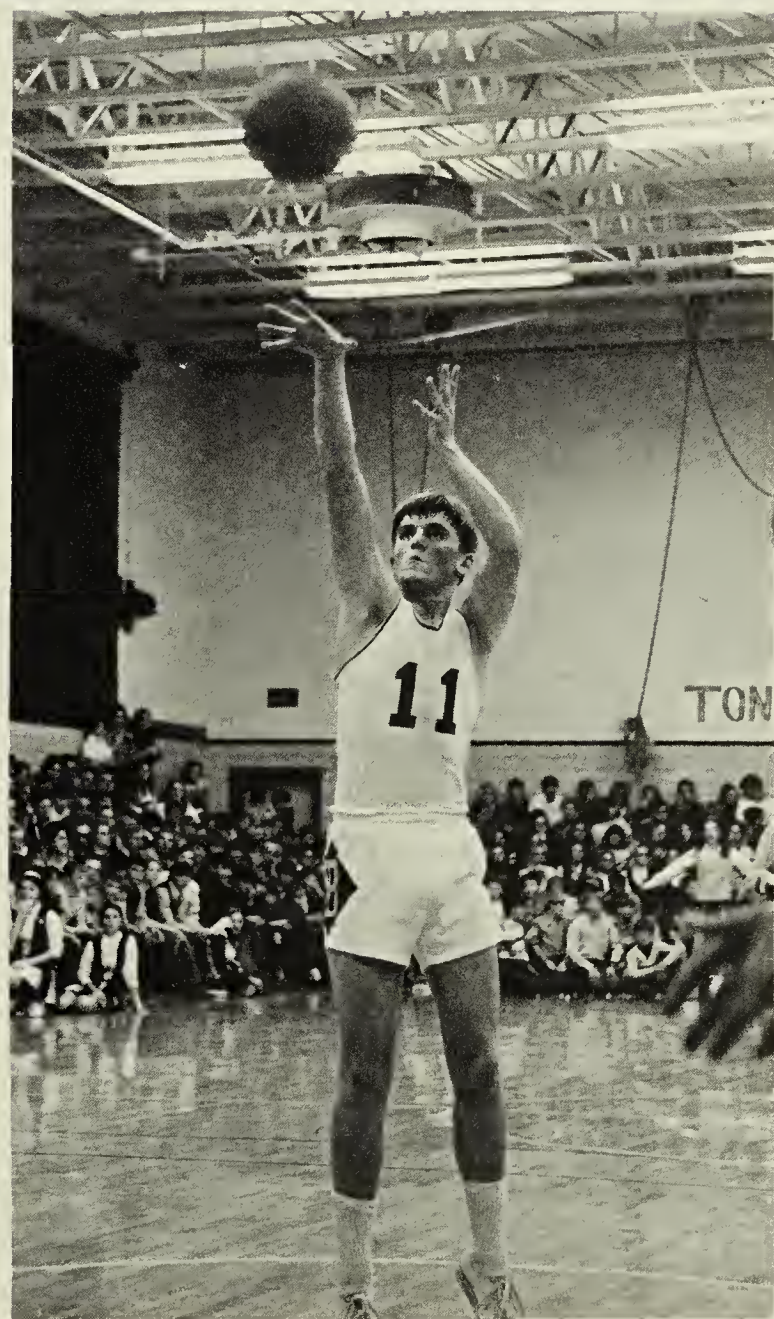

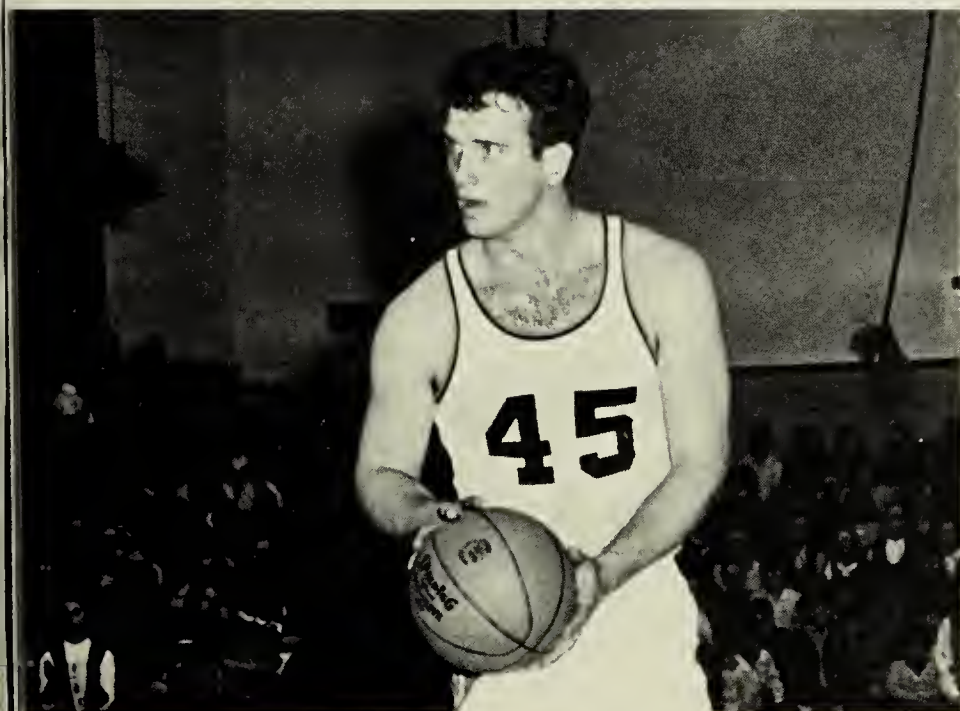

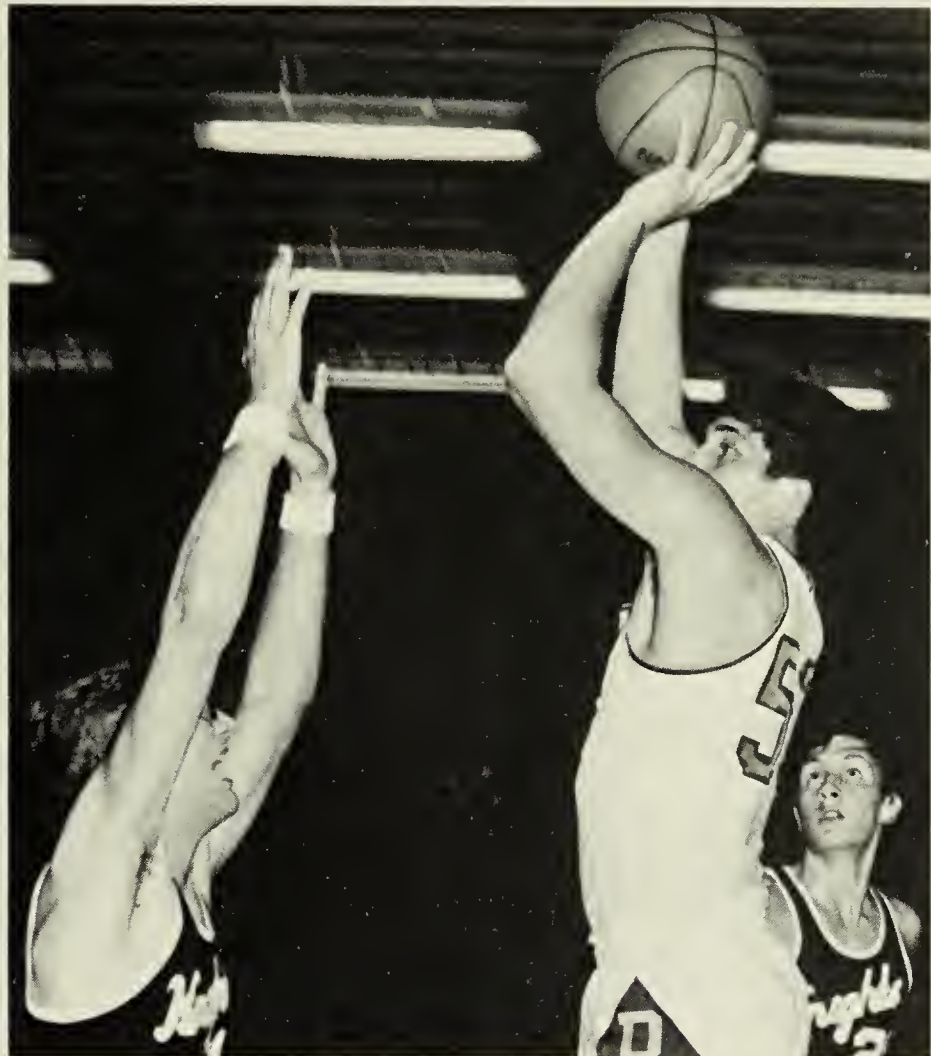

The Gobblers, soaring higher! On bar: David Kyger, Ronnie Branner. Standing: David Reedy, Mike Wean, Olen Burkholder, Jimmy Rohrer, Tommy Freeman. Kneeling: Johnny Wampler, Steve Trumbo, Charlie Shank, Steve Beard. Gobbler managers, or clowns: Vince Whitmore, Charlie Clutteur, and sleepy David Presgraves.

The tense silence in the gym erupts into a deafening roar as the ball swishes through the basket. The crowd jumps to its feet, the scoreboard clicks, and the Gobblers surge ahead. Hours of practice and drill, unseen by the crowd, result in the smooth team effort evident during games. Team effort and student spirit make games exciting and rewarding.

Special Recognition . . .

At right: This year the Broadway Gobblers' football team placed seven players on the All Valley District team. Representing our school were Ronnie Branner, Honorable Mention at offensive end; David Kyger, offensive and defensive tackle; John Serrell, offensive tackle and Honorable Mention at linebacker; Jim Norman, offensive back; Barry Hollar, center; Dickie Souder, defensive guard; and Doug Rogers (not pictured), linebacker. Below: In addition to being picked to the All District team David Kyger was picked as this year's Daily News Record Player of the Year. He has signed a full scholarship with the University of Virginia. Way to go, Dave!

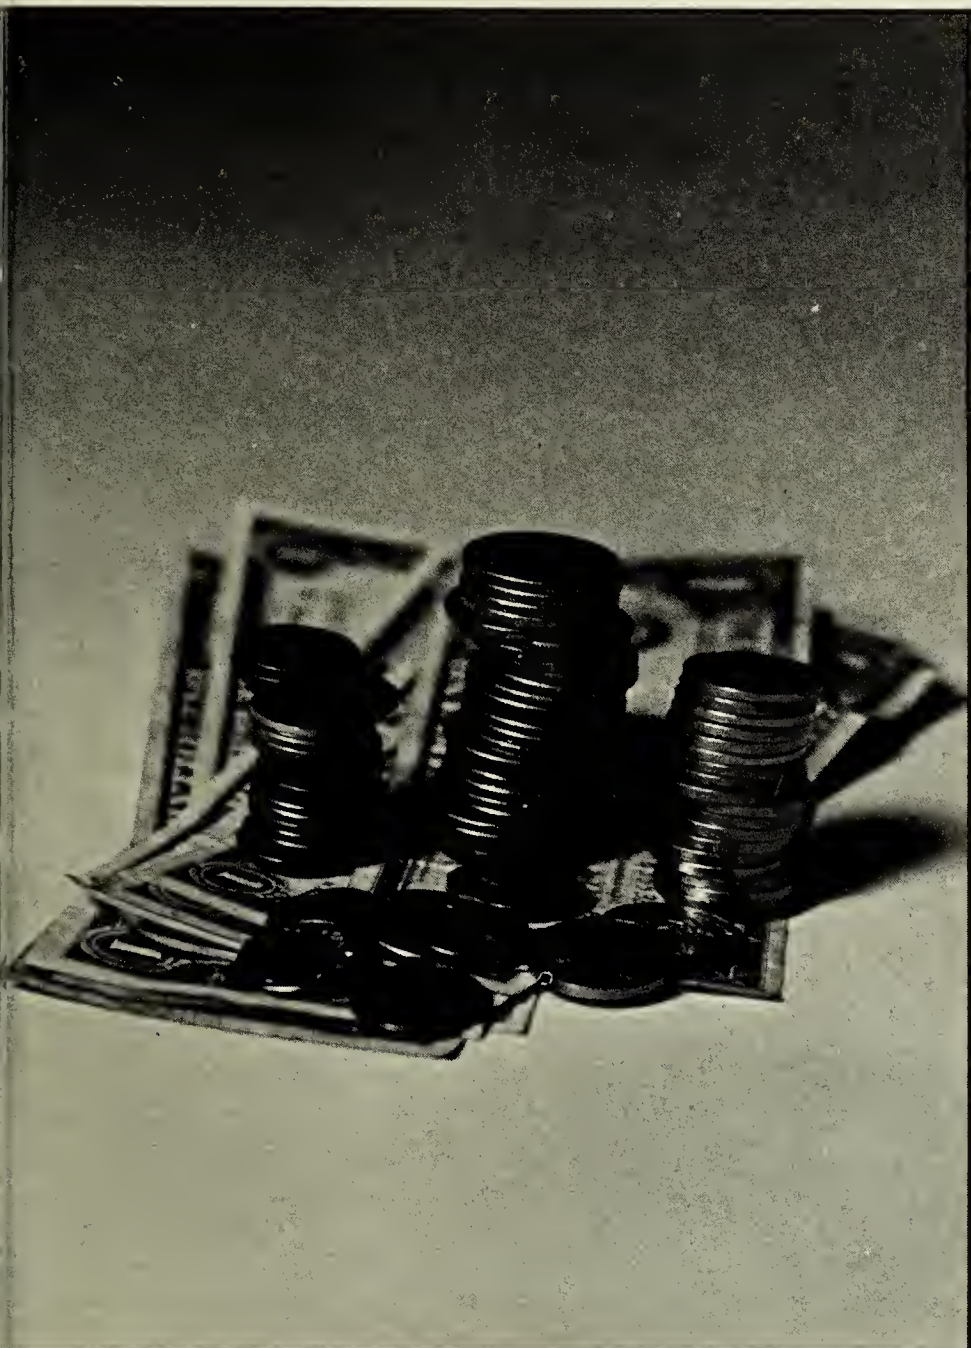

for Special Honors

Top left: Every year a number of Broadway students participate in the National Merit Scholarship Program. This is a nationwide contest for scholarships awarded on the basis of scholastic achievement as shown on tests administered by the Program. To do well on the test is indeed commendable. This year two students, Dennis Lee and Danny Sutton, received Letters of Commendation and one, Barry Hollar, reached semi-finalist status. Of course, Barry was having an off day when this picture was taken. Top right: "I cooked this?" Debbie Shoemaker won the "Miss Betty Crocker Homemaker of the Year" contest at BHS this year. Left: Learning to lead our nation(?) are Boys' and Girls' State members Greg May, Bruce Garber, Peggy Swank, and Valda Garber.

"Whaddya mean Rogers is still in the wood pile?"

"Star light, star bright, . . ."

"A coffee grounds sandwich?"

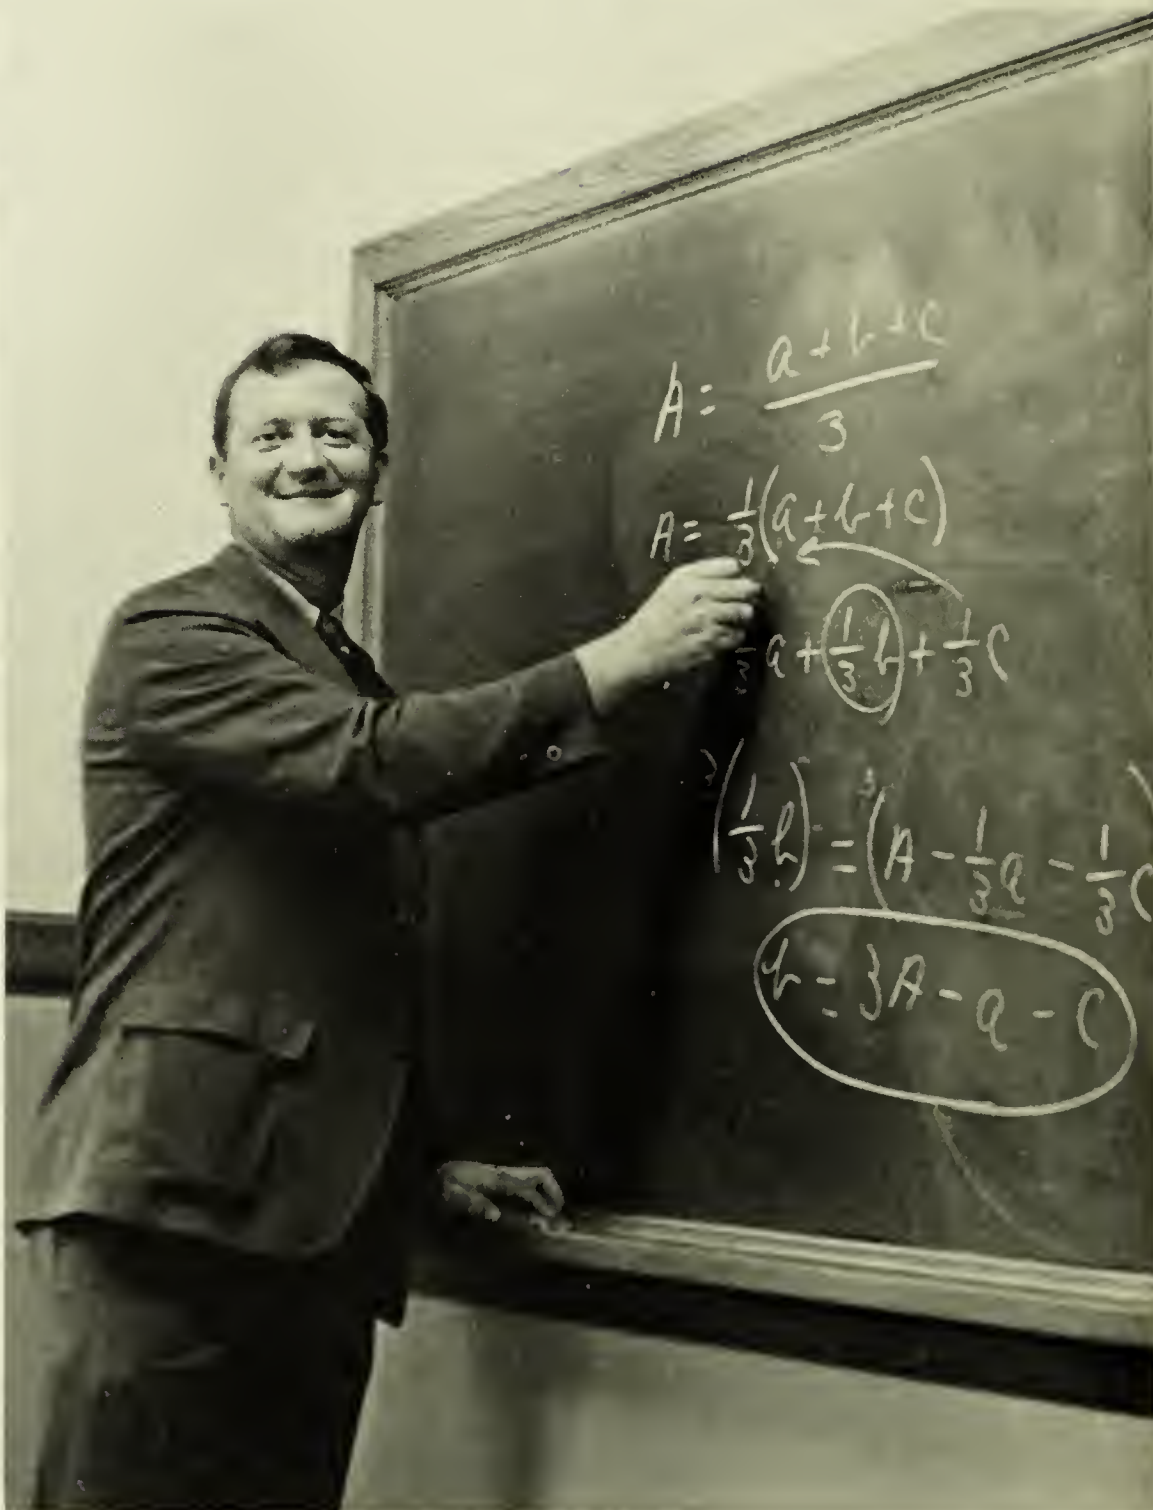

Mash 'em Moyers.

"Want some pie, Jane?"

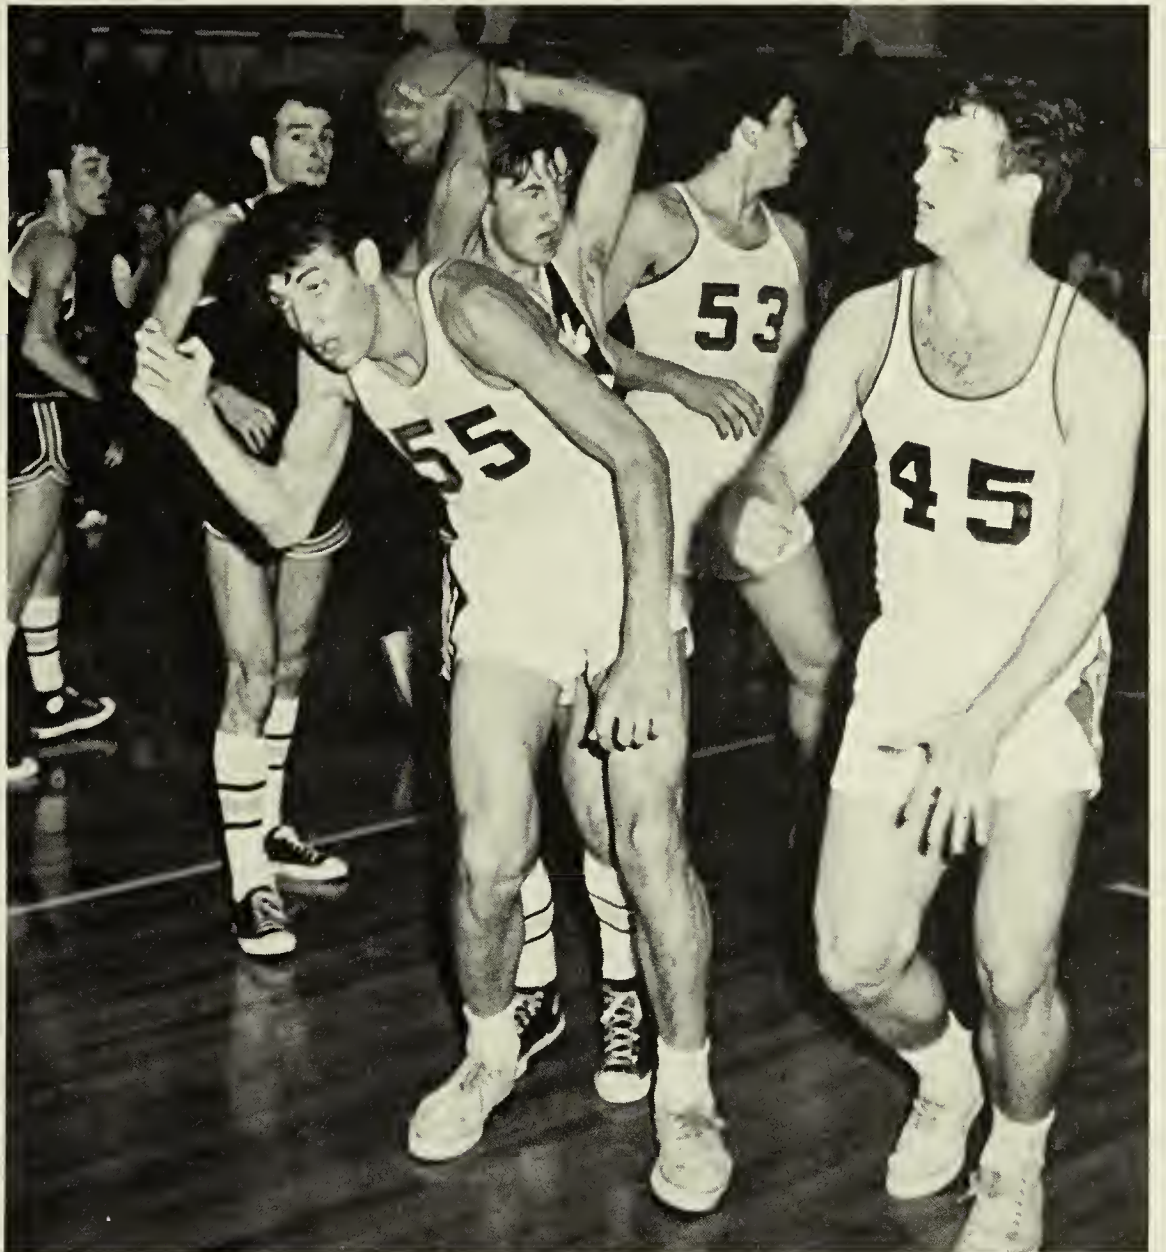

"Get off the basket, Reedy!"

"Then according to the distributive property of . . . Say gang, ain't algebra fun?"

Sail on silvergirl,
Sail on by.
Your time has come to shine.
All your dreams are on their way.
See how they shine.
If you need a friend
I'm sailing right behind.
Like a bridge over troubled water
I will ease your mind.

Paul Simon, 1969
